"Where the Hoe Library Was Sold"

Paintings by Old Masters

An Extraordinary Collection formed during a long residence in Florence by MR. GEORGE A. DOSTAL of New York and by MADAME LUCILLE KRIER DE MAUCOURANT of Paris. Noteworthy works of unquestioned authenticity by Italian Masters and two paintings of the very highest importance, as follows:

Ribera's "La Pieta"

Is one of the most remarkable paintings by Ribera ever brought to this country. For a century and a half it was in the family of Count Poddi, professor of Fine Arts in the Royal University of Bologna. It depicts the dead Christ, the Virgin, the Magdalen and Saint Anne with prefound mastery of conception and execution.

Guido Reni's "Immaculate Conception"

This painting was bought from the Marchese Turco of Florence, in whose family chapel it had hung for more than a century and a half, and is of extraordinary interest.

This Collection, to the exhibition and sale of which the public is invited, will be sold on the evening of Tuesday, February 3d. Cata-

Musical Instruments Collected by the late

Alfred L. Seligman Including famous Violins, Violas, and Violoncellos and bequeathed to the Young Men's Symphony Orchestra of New York, are now being tested by some of the leading professional and amateur performers of New York City. These fine instruments will be sold without restrictions on Tuesday Afternoon, January 27th, and the proceeds will be used to carry on the charitable and educational work of this famous musical organization.

Objects of Art

On the same afternoon and on the afternoon following will be sold English and Continental Silver, the property of Mrs. Effie Lyle Whitney of Louisville, and other consignors; Sheffield and Modern Plate, Oriental Rugs, Bronzes and Artistic Furniture belonging to the Estate of Robert A. Raetze of New York.

AUTOGRAPH LETTERS, Manuscripts and Documents, including the Collection of the late I. Remsen Lane of Orange, N. J., and consignments by the heirs of Joel Barlow, author and minister to France, 1811. Americana of the highest interest and importance. To be Sold Monday afternoon and evening, January 26th.
